

Authentic barbecue is truly a fine art. Our Pit Masters, Dennis Machado and Fernando Ordonez have been doing barbecue right, in the traditional way: fine quality meats dry-seasoned and smoked low-and-slow over selected hardwoods since 1996.

So what is our difference? We have lived in South City and have operated small businesses right here for most of our lives! So, we have a PASSION to bring to our neighborhood, the very BEST barbecue from all around the country, through our attention to detail. We even make our own barbecue sauces and side items fresh in-house every single day!
